

REEN D. WATERMAN, JR

Reen D. Waterman, Jr., with a successful business background in real estate for more than 35 years (where he co-owned two real estate companies), became the professional real estate columnist for APG, Media of Chesapeake, a national media outlet, with his column “About the House.” He is the primary author of the couple’s most recent book, “Helpful Homeowner Hacks” and prolific magazine writer for a number of regional magazines. (Find his portfolio at <https://www.reenwaterman.com>.)

A motivating and encouraging leader, in 2005, Reen launched his Business Network International Chapter (BNI) that won Chapter of the Year for Maryland over 86 other chapters. Reen also served as National Marketing Director and Trainer for Hobbs Herder Advertising of California conducting seminars nationwide.

With a Bachelor’s degree in History from Washington & Lee University and Master’s degree in Christian Counseling from Capital Bible Seminary, Reen is a much sought-after speaker, passionate about Men’s Ministry. He combines insightful Biblical concepts, practical coping strategies for dealing with life’s challenges, his personal outdoor experiences, and a light-hearted humor that allows people to absorb and apply transformational truths. Currently as Associate Staff for The Navigators, he acts as consultant and platform speaker for church Men’s Ministries. He is also a member of the Outdoor Writer’s Association of America.
